

Discover.

Interactive Learning

Newbridge Academy takes a collaborative approach to education. We understand that learning must encompass a range of ideas and allow for a variety of experiences to be truly meaningful for each student. Utilizing the inquiry model, our teachers facilitate student learning and the development of skills through exploration, investigation and focused study. Newbridge believes that education is exploratory; our teaching staff deliver discussion focused lessons, and lead a multitude of activities to co-construct knowledge in the classroom.