

HOCKEY

Our hockey program provides students with a proven model for successful player development.

- Fundamental skills are developed through our “building block” strategy – an innovative isolation approach that effectively and efficiently builds core skills
- Individual tactics apply foundational skills in one vs. one situations – both offensively and defensively
- Team tactics build on the first two steps, applying skills to game situations that involve multiple players
- Hockey IQ ties the first three steps together, teaching players how to read the play as it develops, react and be fluid in game situations
